TERRY WOLLMAN

Music Director, Producer, Composer,
Multi Instrumentalist

Some people are born with talent, some are born with desire, and some have sheer force of will regardless of their gifts.

Terry Wollman embraced these qualities, added his passion for music, and through his innate curiosity, ability and perseverance, emerged as a skilled artist, forging an enviable career that has crossed over into every major category of music in the spectrum.

An accomplished and versatile producer, composer, and musician, Terry has commanded such diverse projects touring, recording and performing as music director and/or guitarist for dozens of renowned artists including Keb' Mo', Billy Preston, The 5th Dimension, Wilson Phillips, Al Jarreau, Joan Baez, Joe Walsh, Gerald Albright and Eartha Kitt, to name just a few.

Originally from Miami, Terry was formally educated in Boston, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Arranging from the prestigious Berklee College of Music. Soon after arriving in Los Angeles, Terry built a solid reputation as an in-demand session guitarist and producer contributing to all styles of music from jazz to pop, rock, blues, R&B and beyond.

A man with dark hair, wearing a white button-down shirt, is seated and playing an acoustic guitar. He has a focused expression with his eyes closed. The background is a recording studio filled with various pieces of audio equipment, including racks of gear and a large monitor. The lighting is warm and focused on the man.

“Every so often an opportunity comes along to create music out of the ordinary.”

A notable highlight of Terry's illustrious career is a Grammy nomination for his first solo recording, "Bimini", a contemporary jazz collection that also received worldwide critical acclaim. His second album, "Say Yes", was extremely well-received in large part due to his eclectic musical choices and a incredible array of guest artists such as Joe Sample, Abe Laboriel, Luis Conte and Michael McDonald interpreting Terry's sonic vision.

Terry's TV engagements include stints for "Scrubs", "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno", FOX TV's "Late Show", "The Byron Allen Show", "The Arsenio Hall Show" and "Married With Children".

Among his acting credits are appearances on "Desperate Housewives", "The Larry Sanders Show", and the upcoming, highly anticipated ABC series, "Caveman", based on the popular Geico commercials.

As a diverse and highly respected musician, Terry's artistry continues to evolve and inspire with integrity and a uniquely creative perspective on the music industry
